

A five-day residential training programme on 'Open Educational Resources: Innovating Education' was inaugurated at the Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore. The event is jointly organised by the Central Institute of Educational Technology (CIET), National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT), the Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA), and the School of Education of the host institution. Dr V Bharathi Harishankar, Vice-Chancellor of the Institute, delivered the presidential address during the inaugural session | EXPRESS