"As we step into the New Year 2026, may it be a time of renewed hope, critical thinking, and collective responsibility. Education remains the cornerstone of a Viksit Bharat, empowering our youth with knowledge, skills, and values to build an innovative, inclusive, and self-reliant nation. Let us reaffirm our commitment to learning, compassion, and dialogue as we work together toward a more informed and progressive society. I wish readers of 'The New Indian Express' a year of good health, purposeful learning, and shared progress"
