Avinashilingam University sets world record in community service

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of Avinashilingam University set a world record by completing 100 different community outreach activities in just 12 hours. This initiative, titled '100 Acts, One Mission - Unite, Serve, Inspire', was achieved with the participation of 2,000 NSS volunteers, making an impact on rural communities. This has been officially recognised and registered in the Elite World Records, United States of America.
