

The Indian Express
16/04/2019

Convocation day: 1,998 degrees conferred

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Coimbatore

THE 30th convocation of Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education was held on Monday. Presenting the annual report of the institutions, Premavathy Vijayan pointed out that the institution was awarded 'A+' by NAAC.

Presiding over the convocation function, chancellor of the institute P R Krishnakumar conferred degrees on graduating students and honoured them. He highlighted the cultural diversity of the country and urged the students to propagate indigenous research, traditions and practises.

He insisted that the graduates should concentrate on becoming innovators, entrepreneurs and global leaders. He emphasized the importance of having Emotional Quotient in addition to Intelligence Quotient. The total number of degrees conferred was 1,998 — 52 PhDs, 43 MPhils, 316 PG, 1,587 UG. As many as 75 students were awarded gold medals for academic excellence and overall performance.

Deccan Chronicle
16/04/2019

Graduation Day at Avinashilingam

Coimbatore: At the 30th convocation of Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education that was organised on Monday, degrees was conferred on 1998 candidates and 75 students were awarded with gold medals for excellence in academic performance. University Chancellor Dr. P. R. Krishnakumar presided over the function and conferred the degree and honoured the graduating candidates. Vice Chancellor of the Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU) delivered the convocation address. Vice Chancellor of Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education Dr. Premavathy Vijayan in her annual report highlighted the achievements of the university.

Times of India 16/04/2019

NB
S
16.4.19

Avinashilingam Institute conducts 30th Convocation Day

The 30th Convocation Day of Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education held on Monday on the college premises. Vice-chancellor Premavathy Vijayan presented the annual report of the institution highlighting its achievements. She pointed out that the institution was awarded 'A+' grade by NAAC. Chancellor P R Krishnakumar presided over the event and distributed degree certificates to graduates. TNAU vice-chancellor N Kumar delivered the convocation address.

