

RECOMMENDATIONS

The major research recommendations are

- Assess body composition of women
- Assess relationship between nutritional status and adiposity and hypertension
- Evolve, test and implement interventions aimed at increasing physical activity of the women across age groups to halt and later reduce prevalence of over nutrition.