

TELANGANA GIRL WINS NATIONAL BEST STUDENT AWARD

AIFMP President Sri Raveendra Joshi, Vice President (South), Sri Senthil Kumar and Hon. Joint Secretary Sri C. Ravinder Reddy presenting the Award at Madurai

A Native of Nalgonda Ms. K. Rachana, 4th year BE (Printing Technology) Student of Avinashilingam College, School of Engineering, Coimbatore was selected for the Best

Student Award at the National Awards for Excellence in Printing at Madurai, TamilNadu. This is the first time that the All India Federation of Master Printers introduced the Best Student Award also on Pan India basis in the NAEP Awards 2018 apart from excellence in printing.

The Award was presented to Ms. Rachana for being the best student among all the Colleges and Institutes of Printing Technology in India by AIFMP President Sri Raveendra Joshi, Vice President (South), Sri Senthil Kumar and Hon. Joint Secretary Sri C. Ravinder Reddy. Among her other achievements, she was a Finalist at the Print Olympiad 2018 at Chandigarh. She was Awarded First Prize for Best Poster Design at the Anna University Chennai. Ms. Rachana won numerous prizes in debates and College Competitions apart from publishing articles in magazines and Presenting Technical papers at conferences. Sri C. Ravinder Reddy, President, Telangana Offset Printers Association and Joint Secretary, AIFMP honoured her at Hyderabad on 28-12-2018.