

The Womanist Manifesto for Co-existence in the Nigerian Society in the Novels of Sefi Atta

By

Sangavi. K

Reg. No. 19PHENF004

Supervisor

Dr. S. Kalamani

Department of English

A Thesis Submitted to

Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore – 641043.

In Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in English

March 2023

80_Recommendations

Sefi Atta's literary works serve as a compelling exploration of themes surrounding female empowerment, actively resisting gender oppression, and fostering cultural awareness. These concluding notes encapsulate the essence of her narratives:

1. Atta underscores the transformative potential of education and economic freedom for women's empowerment.
2. Advocating for active resistance, the author encourages women to speak out against gender oppression rather than acquiescing in silence.
3. The narrative posits that liberation from bias and discrimination is a collective endeavour, emphasizing the power of united voices.
4. Amplifying women's voices is portrayed not only as a means of individual empowerment but also as a catalyst for the advancement of women as a whole.
5. Cultural awareness and identity emerge as essential elements, fostering self-reliance, self-realization, and empowerment for individuals, irrespective of gender.
6. Beyond a gender-specific lens, Atta's universal message calls for empowerment as a shared pursuit, transcending societal boundaries.